The Agronomist tells the story of Haitian national hero, journalist, and freedom fighter Jean Dominique. As owner and operator of his nation's oldest and only free radio station, he was frequently at odds with his country's various repressive governments and spent much of the '80s and early '90s in exile in New York. It was Dominique's shocking and still-unsolved assassination in April 2000 that gave the impetus to assemble more than a decade's worth of material for this film.
