

Cuba's response to the Kashmir earthquake

Monday 11 June

7.30 pm

Quaker Meeting House,
St James St S1 (by Cathedral)

When a devastating earthquake hit Pakistan in 2005, Cuba sent 2,500 doctors and 32 fully-equipped field hospitals (of 44 in total sent by the outside world). The 'Henry Reeve' emergency medical brigade carried out 1.7 million consultations and continued working in the worst affected areas long after the TV cameras and other agencies had left.

Come and hear our very special guest from Cuba, the leader of Cuba's mission to Kashmir:

Dr Juan Carlos Dupuy
Núñez

His address will be preceded by a short (15min) film 'On the Slopes of the Himalayas'—a moving first-hand account of events in October 2005.

"We have not come here looking for glory. We are helping people. Today in Pakistan. Tomorrow who knows? We will be where we are needed."

Cuban medical volunteer, Pakistan

All welcome!
