

WHY SOCIAL INEQUALITY PERSISTS

Speaker: Prof. Danny Dorling

Among rich countries Britain has one of the most unequal distributions of wealth and income in the world.

Prof. Dorling argues that in rich countries injustice as represented by social inequalities is caused less and less by having too few resources to share around fairly. It is increasingly maintained by widespread adherence to beliefs which actually propagate inequality.

Wednesday 3rd February at 8:00 p.m.
THE UNIVERSITY ARMS, 197 BROOK HILL,
SHEFFIELD

WHY SOCIAL INEQUALITY PERSISTS

Speaker: Prof. Danny Dorling

Among rich countries Britain has one of the most unequal distributions of wealth and income in the world.

Prof. Dorling argues that in rich countries injustice as represented by social inequalities is caused less and less by having too few resources to share around fairly. It is increasingly maintained by widespread adherence to beliefs which actually propagate inequality.

Wednesday 3rd February at 8:00 p.m.
THE UNIVERSITY ARMS, 197 BROOK HILL,
SHEFFIELD